

Master Plan Public Forum
Tuesday, November 17, 2009

Question 1 – What do you like best about the Illinois State University campus.

We have done a good job of maintaining green spaces. Do not ever lose sight of the good impression an attractive campus makes on prospective students and their parents.

The beautiful campus and architecture.

Quad area.

Close locality of the buildings. Easy to get around.

I enjoy the nostalgia of the Quad and the ability to reach the majority of campus by walking.

The Quad and the proximity of all the buildings. Very easy to navigate compared to other campuses.

The Quad is very inviting to students and visitors. It is a nice place for meetings. The new buildings on campus really give the campus a nice look.

The look of some of the buildings. It is apparent ISU has been trying to keep the campus looking good while not having much help from the state budget.

Most staff are very helpful if you need help.

The Quad. Truly the heart and soul of the University in my opinion.

Grounds.

Good architecture (though could be better.)

Great grounds

A good sense of history.

The integration with the community and restaurants is very inviting.

Central location between shopping centers.

Seems a lot cleaner than U of I.

Good amount of trees nature in Quad.

It is beautiful.

Green space available is well maintained.

There is generally good consistency across buildings designs.

The Quad is our most attractive space!

The Quad is gorgeous!

Master Plan Public Forum
Tuesday, November 17, 2009

Campus transportation is great and campus is very walkable. Easy to get around.

The Quad is very nice and inviting. There is also a nice mix of architecture that should be expanded.

The Quad-a biological and architectural marvel to be preserved. Let us keep new and renovated buildings compatible.

The academic focus of students and even the student athletes academic.

Strong programs in many departments across campus.

Open to the public!

Families and people of the community are all a part of the university.

Close to the newly developed Uptown Normal.

I like the Quad because of the reasons for the trees and how good it looks. The Quad makes me feel comfortable moving through the campus.

I like the layout of the campus. Compared to other major universities, all of the educational buildings are very close to each other. As a student, I find this convenient and it is what drew me to Illinois State.

The campus green spaces. It is a beautiful campus.

I like the individual feeling of the architecture but still maintain a traditional style.

The ISU campus feels like a true community. The campus is designed really allows this to happen.

Compact size. Also a detriment.

Residential nature of campus.